Netherlands Royal Military Band

The Koninklijke Militaire Kapel (Royal Military Band), founded in 1829, finds its main task in performing for the Royal Family and the Royal Netherlands Army. Beside these tasks the KMK performs in the main Dutch theatres and concert halls and produces at least one CD every year.

Since 1867 the KMK is a highly sought-after guest in many countries. The Band has performed in concert halls from Norway to Italy and from Canada to Russia.

The KMK resides at the Frederik Barracks in The Hague.
